

name:

date:

FIRST CONDITIONAL

if (condition), PRESENT SIMPLE If it rains, ...	(Result) WILL / WON'Twe won't go.
(Result) WILL / WON'T We won't go...	if (condition) PRESENT SIMPLE ...if it rains.

The First Conditional is used to talk about real future situations; possibly and likely.

Use your imagination (and the First Conditional) to complete the sentences below!

1. If I don't do my homework, my teacher will be angry.
2. He'll go to the party if his friends are there.
3. If he buys a new car, he'll go on a road trip.
4. My dad won't eat lunch if he is too busy.
5. If the train is canceled, we won't arrive in time.
6. We will lose the match, if we don't play better.
7. If it rains tomorrow, the kids will be disappointed.
8. I won't make a cake if the party is canceled.
9. If Julie passes the exam, we'll go to her favorite restaurant.
10. The baby will cry if you take away her teddy bear.
11. If I don't read that book, I won't know what happens.
12. Your family will be late if they don't leave the house now.
13. If I forget my camera, I'll borrow my brother's.
14. The cat will be hungry if you forget to feed it.
15. If my uncle buys a big pizza, we will share it.