

PHRASAL VERBS – MONEY

Match the phrasal verb to the definition.

save up	pay off
put aside	splash out
fork out	cut back (on)
rip off	get by pay back	run out of

DEFINITION	PHRASAL VERB
To repay a debt in full.	pay off
To charge someone too much money or cheat them financially.	rip off
To pay money for something, usually unwillingly.	shell out
To keep money for a specific purpose over time.	save up
To spend a lot of money on something, often luxuriously or unnecessarily.	splash out
To finish all of something, so that there is none left.	run out of
To manage to live or survive financially, often with difficulty.	get by to save something, usually time or money, for a special purpose	put aside to return money that you borrowed from somebody	pay back
To reduce spending or consumption.	cut back (on)

